

2021-2027 Erasmus + Program

The new term (2021-2027) Erasmus+ Program budget has been approved by the agreement reached by the European Parliament and the Council.

With a dedicated budget of more than €26 billion, made up of €24.5 billion in current prices and an additional top-up of €1.7 billion in 2018 prices, the new programme will not only be more inclusive and innovative but also more digital and greener. It will also support new flagship initiatives, such as European Universities, Erasmus Teacher Academies, Centres of Vocational Excellence and DiscoverEU.

In addition to that, The ECHE Results for 2021-2027 have been announced. The number of higher education institutions holding ECHE in Turkey is now 195. Abdullah Gül University is one of these universities.

The Erasmus Charter for Higher Education (ECHE) provides the general quality framework for European and international cooperation activities a higher education institution (HEI) may carry out within the Erasmus+ Programme. The award of an Erasmus Charter for Higher Education is a pre-requisite for all HEIs located in a Programme country and willing to participate in any of the three key activities of Erasmus+.

Erasmus Talks Erasmus Days 2020

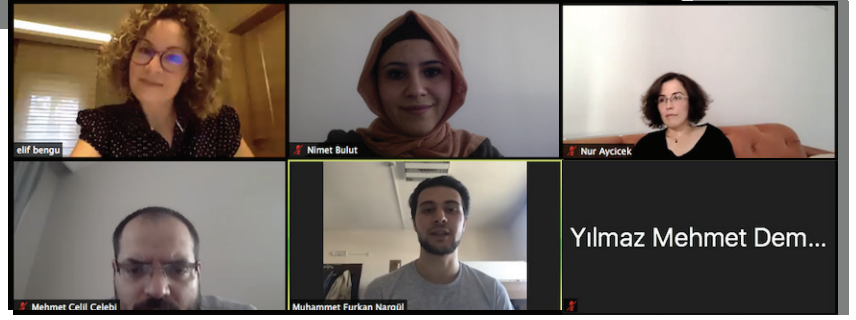

Erasmus Days is a unique opportunity to organize an event, share Erasmus experience or spread the word about projects. It is described as three days of celebration of the Erasmus+ Programme in Europe and beyond. International mobility and European citizenship are once again at the heart of the #Erasmus Days 2020.

AGU Erasmus Office organized Erasmus Talks programme during ErasmusDays. We talked about Erasmus study and internship mobility. Our student, Dhia Daamouche who is the alumni of the programme shared his Erasmus internship experience and answered the questions of the attendees.

Online Info Sessions

AGU Erasmus Office organized Erasmus info session within the framework of AGU GLB courses. We talked about Erasmus online and physical mobility opportunities during COVID-19 and we explained how to apply for Erasmus. Another alumni of the programme, Muhammed Furkan Nargül shared his internship and study experiences.
